5. A Note on These Texts

These are Crusade Prayers from The Book of Truth (Maria Divine Mercy), an unapproved body of alleged private revelation. Several bishops have prohibited it or judged it contrary to Catholic teaching. It is printed for study and private devotion, not for belief, and it is not Church teaching or an approved liturgical text.

What the prayers ask. The petitions addressed to God, Our Lady and the saints, for mercy, for peace, for the conversion of sinners, for the protection of the Church and of the weak, and for the gift of faith, are in themselves in harmony with Catholic prayer. The Church asks for the same graces in the Mass and in the Holy Rosary.

What the prayers claim. The "one world currency" and "one world control" (prayers 42 and 61), the coming "World War 3" (prayer 54), the Antichrist and the mark of the beast, and the "Warning" are assertions of the corpus, not of the Church. They must not be treated as fulfilled or imminent events. Catholic teaching does not ask the faithful to fear predicted events. It asks for vigilance and hope: "Watch therefore, for you do not know on which day your Lord is coming" (Matthew 24:42).

Private revelation. The public Revelation of Jesus Christ is complete. Private revelations do not add to it or correct it, and no one is obliged to believe them (CCC 66–67). A text printed here carries only the authority of the prayer itself, judged by its agreement with the faith.

Dates and feasts. Crusade Prayer (154) names 4 June as a Feast Day of the Mother of Salvation. No such feast is in the Church's liturgical calendar, and the date should not be presented as one.

Order of prayer. No prayer in this pamphlet replaces the Mass, the Sacraments, or the public prayers of the Church, which remain the foundation of Catholic devotion. The Holy Rosary is the Church's own prayer for the same intentions, and the Divine Mercy Chaplet is a devotion the Church has commended.

Discernment. Catholics are asked to "test everything; hold fast what is good" (1 Thessalonians 5:21). A private message is judged by its agreement with Sacred Scripture, Tradition and the teaching of the Church, and by its fruits. Messages that stir fear, division or distrust of the Church's pastors, or that fix a date for themselves, call for particular caution.

Pastoral counsel. Those who pray these texts in a group should keep the Mass and the Sacrament of Penance at the centre of their parish life, and should seek guidance on the texts from their parish priest or their diocesan bishop. The leader should read the texts beforehand, so that each prayer is said with understanding and never as a condition for grace or a test of faith.

2. Crusade Prayers for Saturday

Crusade of Prayer (5): Praise to God the Most High.

O, Eternal Father, we offer you our prayers in joyful thanksgiving for your precious gift of Mercy to the whole of mankind.
We rejoice and offer you most glorious King our praise and adoration for your loving and tender mercy.
You, God the Most High are our King, and for this gift you now bring to us we lie at your feet in humble servitude.
Please God have mercy on all your children. Amen.
```

Crusade of Prayer (19): Prayer for young people.

Mother of Salvation, I ask you to pray for the mercy of young souls, who are in terrible darkness, so that they recognize your Beloved Son when He comes to redeem the whole of mankind.
Let not one soul fall by the wayside.
Let not one soul reject His Great Mercy.
I pray, Mother, that all are saved and ask you to cover these souls with your Holy Mantle to provide them the protection they need from the deceiver. Amen.

Crusade of Prayer (20): Stop the antichrist from destroying the world.

O, God the Father, in the name of your precious Son,
I call on you to prevent the Anti-Christ from ensnaring the souls of your children.
I beg you, Almighty Father, to stop him from inflicting terror on your children.
I beg you to stop him from contaminating your creation and ask you to have mercy on those poor souls who will be powerless against him.
Keep me in the Light of Your Face, as my persecution intensifies, when my only sin is to uphold the Truth, the Holy Word of God.
Help me to find the courage to serve you faithfully at all times.
Give me Your Courage and Your Strength, as I fight to defend Your Teachings against fierce opposition.
Never desert me, Jesus, in my time of need and provide me with everything
I need to continue to serve You, through the provision of the Holy Sacraments and Your Precious Body and Blood, through the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass.
Bless me Jesus.
Walk with me.
Rest in me.
Stay with me. Amen.
```
